

MADE A STUDY OF MR. DALY. THE LEAGUE SEASON OPENS.

Max Figman Accounts for His New York Meets Boston on the Admirable Impersonation. Polo Grounds To-Morrow.

Mr. Dal's Trying to Secure Chevalier—Other Stage News.

"I sat up nights," said Max Figman the other day, "studying the character of Augustin Daly as I interpret it in 'The Poet and the Puppets.' I confess that the task was not an easy one by any means. Heretofore Daly has been burlesqued. Willing to give a very exaggerated picture of him, my idea was to avoid burlesque and to steer clear of all previous conceptions of the author-manager's character. I try to play Augustin Daly as he is—to imitate him in dress, manner and peculiarities. You will readily understand the difficulty of such a task. I turned my mind to studying Dalyism, and I spent considerable money in getting a correct hat and costumes." Mr. Daly has, of course, paid no attention to Mr. Figman's efforts, but it is whispered that he does not object to the impersonation in the least.

Albert Blal, of the firm of Koster & Blal, has been trying to negotiate with Chevalier, the famous London actor-singer, with a view to taking him to Chicago during the Fair. Blal is now in London, and it is said, that he has been making most frantic efforts to approach Chevalier. That very independent gentleman, however, will not consider any offer, no matter how tempting, if his salary in England is enormous, and his appearance here would be something of a risk, for it is not at all sure that London crowd songs would be very much appreciated in America.

In his new comic opera—that is to say, a play—entitled "Panjandrum," the Wolf Pup will make his first appearance in a vehicle drawn by a pair of white mules owned by James Howe, the well-known starter. Mr. Howe, it is said, is financially interested in the Hopper enterprise. The white mules will take the place of the famous "Wang" elephants in the comic opera—or, rather, in the comedy nowdays pays great attention to his first entrance, so much depends upon that reception, "do you know."

Disxy is really growing a voice. Although still somewhat hoarse, there are now some genuine tones in the place where the voice ought to be. Disxy attributes his vocal disorder to a severe cold he took a long time ago. He is working very hard and with success to recover himself.

Miss Lily Burnand, a "favorite" of the London concert hall, has been engaged by Tony Pastor and will be in New York next week. She has just been interviewed by one of the London critics who made a somewhat feeble attempt to copy the American interviewing idea. "I have been engaged for some time past by Tony Pastor to appear at his theatre in New York," said Miss Burnand to this luminary, "but I shall be back in the autumn."

"What are there you will pay a visit to the Chicago exhibition, I suppose," queried the fond youth.

"Rather," was the reply. "I am also going to visit Bud and Walter."

"To visit the President, I presume?"

"You've guessed it. I have an aunt in New York who is a member of the army, and before I return I may be converted."

Oh, bright Miss Lily Burnand!

J. C. Duff has just retired Gilbert and Sullivan's old-dressed "Financier" in Philadelphia, for which city such things as chestnuts do not exist. Duff also has been appearing as "Financier." Two or three seasons ago he did a colonial business with it at the Chicago Auditorium.

Also for the poor Chicago chorus girls! The gamblers have been engaged by Tony Pastor and will be in New York next week. She has just been interviewed by one of the London critics who made a somewhat feeble attempt to copy the American interviewing idea. "I have been engaged for some time past by Tony Pastor to appear at his theatre in New York," said Miss Burnand to this luminary, "but I shall be back in the autumn."

A Chicago girl writer has made the awful discovery that Kyrie Believ is bow-legged. She says that this infirmity is of very recent origin, for he was not thus afflicted when he appeared in "Kismet and Juliet." "Astoria and Cleopatra" and "Therese." His bow-leggedness has only been apparent during the last few weeks, a fact that leaves the ingenious critic to infer that it is due to advancing years, the wrinkles and gray hair.

A new story of the late Adelaide Nelson has just been discovered. It appears that her friends could not induce her to make a will for reason for not doing so was the feeling that such an act would precipitate her death. Time wore on and she received a very irritating offer to play in America. Her friends begged her and told her that it would wrecked if she still refused to make a will. She yielded to their importunities, but as soon as she had signed the document she said: "I feel as if I had signed my death warrant." Within three weeks she was dead.

"EDDIE" DEVIN IS DEAD.

The Slayer of Max Clerget a Victim of Consumption.

The fact that Edward Devin, the young man who shot and killed, in the Court of General Sessions, young Max Clerget, who had criminally assaulted Devin's fifteen-year-old sister Sarah, died April 8 in Roosevelt Hospital has just become public.

The shooting occurred June 27, 1892, just after Clerget had pleaded guilty to the charge of assaulting Sarah Devin and as a result of being led to the "pen" in the rear of the court-room.

Devin was tried and acquitted on the ground of insanity. Consumption developed, and last February he was removed to Roosevelt Hospital, where he died.

Arrangements for the Ives-Roberts Billiard Match.

A Study in Curves

"A study in curves" would appear to be an applicable term to apply to the little engagement that the nine wise men from out of the East, yelet Boston, have made for to-morrow afternoon at the Polo grounds with the best of officials who claim to be able to play such a right lively game of ball that the savans of the great American pastime from the seat of culture will open their eyes in amazement and cause them many moments of deep thought. It will be the opening game of the League schedule, and the signs of the times are that the public is quite as much interested in three-hits, hits, sacrifices, inshoots and drop curves as they were in the good old bally days of four years ago. Realizing that an unusual effort was necessary to revive the interest in the game, which has been so dormant for three years, Manager John M. Ward, of the New Yorks, has taken a train to get together a band of players that cannot fail to compel the choicest attention of the patrons of baseball. As now constituted New York possesses a team that at the outset promises to make it extremely interesting for any and all of her competitors. The players have done a heap of preliminary work, and under the present holdovers of the champion pennant from the club do not lack confidence in their ability to give New Yorkers a lively imitation of a ball nine winning a game right off the reel. That is exactly what suits the metropolitan enthusiast, and so long as an Article of ball is presented he is not too hazy-minded to know his mind as to what he wants in the direction of interest, albeit his favorite team may be snuffed under. There will be a few musical attachments to to-morrow's opening which will add to the general effect of the affair, and when the opposing sides parade across the greenward preceded by the brass bands, the season has been admitted that the season has opened with a flourish and no mistake. The Bostonians will have Kid Nichols and Charley Bennett at their battery, and Johnny Ward will try to beat that pair with good looking Angus Hulse and the chunky Doyle in the pit.

The New Yorks will take a dash-breathe-in this league when the Jackie the 3-4 "Varsity Nine." The time set for to-morrow's game, a 4 o'clock, will not interfere in any way with the ball parade, as the latter spectacle will have been finished long before the game begins.

Every billiard player in the United States will be deeply interested in this piece of news, which begins, I believe, May 1. The international match between champion Roberts, of England, and America's champion, Frank Frier, will be played in New York.

Thomas Taylor, the representative of Roberts, the English champion billiard player, arrived in Chicago Saturday. He was not until yesterday that he called on champion Ives and made known his mission. He will play the match in the latter part of the season, and the details of the Ives-Roberts match at the English game, concerning his mission, he said that he had a special arrangement to make of the match to be played by Ives and Roberts in London during the Derby week, which begins, I believe, May 1. He has decided to make a few alterations in the regular English game, in order that the contest be more equal. Ives may talk a few words, but he can no more beat Roberts at the game than he can at the billiard table. He has decided to make a few alterations in the regular English game, in order that the contest be more equal. Ives may talk a few words, but he can no more beat Roberts at the game than he can at the billiard table.

Members of Brewster's Union No. 69, who hitherto employed there were summarily discharged when they protested.

On Memorial Day the labor unions of Cleveland, O., will have a picnic whose proceeds are to be devoted towards making their official organ, which at present is a weekly, a daily labor newspaper.

On May 13 Chalmers' Union No. 34 will vote upon nominees for Vice-President of the International Organizational Union, which is failing to attend will be fined $1 each.

United Machinists' Union No. 2 has appointed a special committee whose duty it will be to investigate the union which began, I believe, May 1. He has decided to make a few alterations in the regular English game, in order that the contest be more equal. Ives may talk a few words, but he can no more beat Roberts at the game than he can at the billiard table.

Mrs. M. J. Jones, well known among the Western Knights of Labor, is on an organization tour through Illinois. She is one of the most earnest workers for woman suffrage.

Members of Brewster's Union No. 69, who hitherto employed there were summarily discharged when they protested.

On Memorial Day the labor unions of Cleveland, O., will have a picnic whose proceeds are to be devoted towards making their official organ, which at present is a weekly, a daily labor newspaper.

On May 13 Chalmers' Union No. 34 will vote upon nominees for Vice-President of the International Organizational Union, which is failing to attend will be fined $1 each.

United Machinists' Union No. 2 has appointed a special committee whose duty it will be to investigate the union which began, I believe, May 1. He has decided to make a few alterations in the regular English game, in order that the contest be more equal. Ives may talk a few words, but he can no more beat Roberts at the game than he can at the billiard table.

Mrs. M. J. Jones, well known among the Western Knights of Labor, is on an organization tour through Illinois. She is one of the most earnest workers for woman suffrage.

Members of Brewster's Union No. 69, who hitherto employed there were summarily discharged when they protested.

On Memorial Day the labor unions of Cleveland, O., will have a picnic whose proceeds are to be devoted towards making their official organ, which at present is a weekly, a daily labor newspaper.

On May 13 Chalmers' Union No. 34 will vote upon nominees for Vice-President of the International Organizational Union, which is failing to attend will be fined $1 each.

United Machinists' Union No. 2 has appointed a special committee whose duty it will be to investigate the union which began, I believe, May 1. He has decided to make a few alterations in the regular English game, in order that the contest be more equal. Ives may talk a few words, but he can no more beat Roberts at the game than he can at the billiard table.

Mrs. M. J. Jones, well known among the Western Knights of Labor, is on an organization tour through Illinois. She is one of the most earnest workers for woman suffrage.

Members of Brewster's Union No. 69, who hitherto employed there were summarily discharged when they protested.

On Memorial Day the labor unions of Cleveland, O., will have a picnic whose proceeds are to be devoted towards making their official organ, which at present is a weekly, a daily labor newspaper.

On May 13 Chalmers' Union No. 34 will vote upon nominees for Vice-President of the International Organizational Union, which is failing to attend will be fined $1 each.

United Machinists' Union No. 2 has appointed a special committee whose duty it will be to investigate the union which began, I believe, May 1. He has decided to make a few alterations in the regular English game, in order that the contest be more equal. Ives may talk a few words, but he can no more beat Roberts at the game than he can at the billiard table.

Mrs. M. J. Jones, well known among the Western Knights of Labor, is on an organization tour through Illinois. She is one of the most earnest workers for woman suffrage.

Members of Brewster's Union No. 69, who hitherto employed there were summarily discharged when they protested.

repetition of the Russell-Van Heest go, only the gloves were so large that Van Heest could not knock the man who opposed him. He hit him on the nose and made it bleed, and only led three times in the four rounds. Van Heest's opponent's groin was injured so as to get his opponent to lead.

Alexander Salvini, who is by many considered the most expert swordsman on the stage, is to meet Prof. Senae, the well-known teacher of fencing, in a sword combat on the stage of the Metropolitan Opera House this afternoon at 4 P. M.

Chairman J. R. Woodruff, of the Committee in charge of the amateur boxing and wrestling contests of the Metropolitan Association, held in Newark some weeks ago, filed the long deferred financial report of those contests yesterday with Secretary James E. Sullivan. Just what the net financial results are has not been made public, but it is believed that a material deficit is shown. The contests, therefore, must be put down as decidedly unprofitable from a monetary point of view.

The programme for the Haver Athletic Club's boxing tournament to-night at Foster's eighth street theatre has been elaborated with an additional pugilistic attraction in the persons of Eddie Leeds and Eddie Sawyer, both well-known Brooklyn fighters. It will be an eight-round bout.

The fourth shooting contest for the Coney Island A. C. trophy was held yesterday at the Atlantic Hotel and Gun Club grounds, Bright Beach. The New Utrecht and Coney Island gun clubs tied at 67 birds when the supply gave out. The next match will be held at Coney Island, N. Y., May 23.

May 18 has been selected as the date of the testimonial to Billy Sexton, the out-time pitcher of the Yankees, the out-time of which will be the subject of the cue will appear at Maurice Daly's.

FROM THE WORLD OF LABOR.

The death is announced of Jerry Hurley, a member of Horseshoers' Union No. 19.

The Grand Division of the Telegraphers' Brotherhood meets at Toronto, Ont., May 1.

Large numbers of women and girls are joining the Retail Clerks' Union in Cleveland, O.

The International Convention of the Tin, Sheet-Iron and Cornice Workers' Union is in session at St. Louis.

The Union Pacific iron-workers' strike has been declared off. The men returned to work yesterday.

Ice delivery men have been organized into a local assembly of the Knights of Labor in Omaha, Neb.

Firemen's Union No. 1 has given $30 to the striking journeymen brewers of Cleveland, O.

Pattern-makers are asked not to go to Indianapolis, as there is no work for them there, although the bosses are advertised for men.

The delegates of Horseshoers' Union No. 1 to the International Union Convention will be given instructions at the union hall in Chicago Saturday.

Valentine Sanders and Valentine Schilling are the new delegates of Carpenters' Union No. 513 to the Carpenters' National Convention at Chicago.

The San Francisco Examiner bemoans the unmistakable fact that the trusts and monopolies are converting the workers of all countries to Socialism.

About 1,200 iron-moulders went on strike in Chicago yesterday. They demand a 40-hour week and a 10-cent increase in wages.

Wages have been reduced at the Eagle box factory in St. Louis, and the union has hitherto employed there were summarily discharged when they protested.

On Memorial Day the labor unions of Cleveland, O., will have a picnic whose proceeds are to be devoted towards making their official organ, which at present is a weekly, a daily labor newspaper.

On May 13 Chalmers' Union No. 34 will vote upon nominees for Vice-President of the International Organizational Union, which is failing to attend will be fined $1 each.

United Machinists' Union No. 2 has appointed a special committee whose duty it will be to investigate the union which began, I believe, May 1. He has decided to make a few alterations in the regular English game, in order that the contest be more equal. Ives may talk a few words, but he can no more beat Roberts at the game than he can at the billiard table.

Mrs. M. J. Jones, well known among the Western Knights of Labor, is on an organization tour through Illinois. She is one of the most earnest workers for woman suffrage.

Members of Brewster's Union No. 69, who hitherto employed there were summarily discharged when they protested.

On Memorial Day the labor unions of Cleveland, O., will have a picnic whose proceeds are to be devoted towards making their official organ, which at present is a weekly, a daily labor newspaper.

On May 13 Chalmers' Union No. 34 will vote upon nominees for Vice-President of the International Organizational Union, which is failing to attend will be fined $1 each.

United Machinists' Union No. 2 has appointed a special committee whose duty it will be to investigate the union which began, I believe, May 1. He has decided to make a few alterations in the regular English game, in order that the contest be more equal. Ives may talk a few words, but he can no more beat Roberts at the game than he can at the billiard table.

Mrs. M. J. Jones, well known among the Western Knights of Labor, is on an organization tour through Illinois. She is one of the most earnest workers for woman suffrage.

Members of Brewster's Union No. 69, who hitherto employed there were summarily discharged when they protested.

CURES OTHERS WILL CURE YOU

PURE BLOOD

HEALTH

MENTAL ENERGY

LONG LIFE

STRONG NERVES

AYER's

SARSAPARILLA

AUDUBON MONUMENT UNVEILING

To Take Place This Afternoon with Great Ceremonies.

The monument which has been built to perpetuate the memory of John James Audubon, the American naturalist, will be unveiled this afternoon in Trinity cemetery, Boulevard and One Hundred and Fifty-third street, in the presence of many members of scientific societies from different parts of the country.

The monument, which is of blue stone, was constructed from contributions of the Audubon Society and was dedicated to the memory of John James Audubon, the American naturalist, will be unveiled this afternoon in Trinity cemetery, Boulevard and One Hundred and Fifty-third street, in the presence of many members of scientific societies from different parts of the country.

Addressed by leading scientists will form the principal feature of the unveiling. Audubon was the son of a Frenchman and an Englishwoman and was born in Louisiana, in 1780. In early life he was engaged in business, but he turned to country life at Mississippi, and he was known as "the bird man of the South."

Relative and friends are invited to attend the funeral services at the residence of her sister at Underhill at 10.30 A. M. on Thursday, and at the house of John Young, 375 New York street, Jersey City Heights, at 9 P. M. the same day.

KNOW.—On Monday night, LILLIE BRUCE, aged 4 years, only daughter of Tristram B. and Hattie M. Bruce, of Jersey City, died at her home, 1780, in early life he was engaged in business, but he turned to country life at Mississippi, and he was known as "the bird man of the South."

SUTHERLAND.—On Monday, April 24, after a short illness, ALFRED W. SUTHERLAND, in the 27th year of his age, died at his home, 1780, in early life he was engaged in business, but he turned to country life at Mississippi, and he was known as "the bird man of the South."

Relative and friends are invited to attend the funeral from his late residence, 444 West 67th st., on Thursday, at 11 o'clock P. M. WATKINS.—On Saturday evening, April 22, at Hotel San Remo, HORACE WATKINS, in the 31st year of his age.

Relative and friends are invited to attend the funeral services at the residence of her sister at Underhill at 10.30 A. M. on Thursday, and at the house of John Young, 375 New York street, Jersey City Heights, at 9 P. M. the same day.

KNOW.—On Monday night, LILLIE BRUCE, aged 4 years, only daughter of Tristram B. and Hattie M. Bruce, of Jersey City, died at her home, 1780, in early life he was engaged in business, but he turned to country life at Mississippi, and he was known as "the bird man of the South."

SUTHERLAND.—On Monday, April 24, after a short illness, ALFRED W. SUTHERLAND, in the 27th year of his age, died at his home, 1780, in early life he was engaged in business, but he turned to country life at Mississippi, and he was known as "the bird man of the South."

Relative and friends are invited to attend the funeral from his late residence, 444 West 67th st., on Thursday, at 11 o'clock P. M. WATKINS.—On Saturday evening, April 22, at Hotel San Remo, HORACE WATKINS, in the 31st year of his age.

Relative and friends are invited to attend the funeral services at the residence of her sister at Underhill at 10.30 A. M. on Thursday, and at the house of John Young, 375 New York street, Jersey City Heights, at 9 P. M. the same day.

KNOW.—On Monday night, LILLIE BRUCE, aged 4 years, only daughter of Tristram B. and Hattie M. Bruce, of Jersey City, died at her home, 1780, in early life he was engaged in business, but he turned to country life at Mississippi, and he was known as "the bird man of the South."

SUTHERLAND.—On Monday, April 24, after a short illness, ALFRED W. SUTHERLAND, in the 27th year of his age, died at his home, 1780, in early life he was engaged in business, but he turned to country life at Mississippi, and he was known as "the bird man of the South."

Relative and friends are invited to attend the funeral from his late residence, 444 West 67th st., on Thursday, at 11 o'clock P. M. WATKINS.—On Saturday evening, April 22, at Hotel San Remo, HORACE WATKINS, in the 31st year of his age.

Relative and friends are invited to attend the funeral services at the residence of her sister at Underhill at 10.30 A. M. on Thursday, and at the house of John Young, 375 New York street, Jersey City Heights, at 9 P. M. the same day.

KNOW.—On Monday night, LILLIE BRUCE, aged 4 years, only daughter of Tristram B. and Hattie M. Bruce, of Jersey City, died at her home, 1780, in early life he was engaged in business, but he turned to country life at Mississippi, and he was known as "the bird man of the South."

SUTHERLAND.—On Monday, April 24, after a short illness, ALFRED W. SUTHERLAND, in the 27th year of his age, died at his home, 1780, in early life he was engaged in business, but he turned to country life at Mississippi, and he was known as "the bird man of the South."

Relative and friends are invited to attend the funeral from his late residence, 444 West 67th st., on Thursday, at 11 o'clock P. M. WATKINS.—On Saturday evening, April 22, at Hotel San Remo, HORACE WATKINS, in the 31st year of his age.

CURRY.—On Tuesday, April 25, M. A. CURRY, wife of James E. Curry, died at her home, 1780, in early life he was engaged in business, but he turned to country life at Mississippi, and he was known as "the bird man of the South."

Relative and friends are invited to attend the funeral services from his late residence, 48 Henry st., Thursday, 2.30 P. M.

CURTIN.—On Tuesday, April 25, JOSEPH V. CURTIN, in his 25th year, died at his home, 1780, in early life he was engaged in business, but he turned to country life at Mississippi, and he was known as "the bird man of the South."

Relative and friends are invited to attend the funeral services from his late residence, 348 West 12th st., on Wednesday evening, April 26, at 8 o'clock. Interment in Greenwood Cemetery.

HANFIST.—On Monday at 11 o'clock, SARAH ANN, beloved wife of Joseph Hanfist, died at her residence, 210 East 15th st. Interment at the convenience of the family.

HILLMAN.—On Tuesday, April 25, 1893, WILLIAM J. HILLMAN, in his 80th year, died at his home, 1780, in early life he was engaged in business, but he turned to country life at Mississippi, and he was known as "the bird man of the South."

Relative and friends are invited to attend the funeral from the residence of his son-in-law, James J. Esterbrook, 3 Webster ave., Jersey City, N. J., on Thursday, April 27, 1893, at 12.30 P. M. Interment State Island.

KLENCK.—On Sunday, after a short illness, EDWARD THOMAS JEFFERSON KLENCK, in his 37th year, died at his home, 1780, in early life he was engaged in business, but he turned to country life at Mississippi, and he was known as "the bird man of the South."

Relative and friends are invited to attend the funeral services at his late residence, 620 Juniper st., on Wednesday afternoon, April 26, at 2 o'clock.

LYNCH.—On Tuesday, April 25, at his residence, 107 West 12th st., MARK ANTHONY LYNN, eldest son of John A. and Mary J. Lynch, died at his home, 1780, in early life he was engaged in business, but he turned to country life at Mississippi, and he was known as "the bird man of the South."

Relative and friends are invited to attend the funeral services, on Thursday morning, at 10 o'clock, at the Church of St. Francis Xavier, West 16th st.

LYNCH.—On Tuesday, April 25, at his residence, 107 West 12th st., MARK ANTHONY LYNN, eldest son of John A. and Mary J. Lynch, died at his home, 1780, in early life he was engaged in business, but he turned to country life at Mississippi, and he was known as "the bird man of the South."

Relative and friends are invited to attend the funeral services, on Thursday morning, at 10 o'clock, at the Church of St. Francis Xavier, West 16th st.

LYNCH.—On Tuesday, April 25, at his residence, 107 West 12th st., MARK ANTHONY LYNN, eldest son of John A. and Mary J. Lynch, died at his home, 1780, in early life he was engaged in business, but he turned to country life at Mississippi, and he was known as "the bird man of the South."

Relative and friends are invited to attend the funeral services, on Thursday morning, at 10 o'clock, at the Church of St. Francis Xavier, West 16th st.

LYNCH.—On Tuesday, April 25, at his residence, 107 West 12th st., MARK ANTHONY LYNN, eldest son of John A. and Mary J. Lynch, died at his home, 1780, in early life he was engaged in business, but he turned to country life at Mississippi, and he was known as "the bird man of the South."

Relative and friends are invited to attend the funeral services, on Thursday morning, at 10 o'clock, at the Church of St. Francis Xavier, West 16th st.

LYNCH.—On Tuesday, April 25, at his residence, 107 West 12th st., MARK ANTHONY LYNN, eldest son of John A. and Mary J. Lynch, died at his home, 1780, in early life he was engaged in business, but he turned to country life at Mississippi, and he was known as "the bird man of the South."

Relative and friends are invited to attend the funeral services, on Thursday morning, at 10 o'clock, at the Church of St. Francis Xavier, West 16th st.

LYNCH.—On Tuesday, April 25, at his residence, 107 West 12th st., MARK ANTHONY LYNN, eldest son of John A. and Mary J. Lynch, died at his home, 1780, in early life he was engaged in business, but he turned to country life at Mississippi, and he was known as "the bird man of the South."

Relative and friends are invited to attend the funeral services, on Thursday morning, at 10 o'clock, at the Church of St. Francis Xavier, West 16th st.

LYNCH.—On Tuesday, April 25, at his residence, 107 West 12th st., MARK ANTHONY LYNN, eldest son of John A. and Mary J. Lynch, died at his home, 1780, in early life he was engaged in business, but he turned to country life at Mississippi, and he was known as "the bird man of the South."

Relative and friends are invited to attend the funeral services, on Thursday morning, at 10 o'clock, at the Church of St. Francis Xavier, West 16th st.

LYNCH.—On Tuesday, April 25, at his residence, 107 West 12th st., MARK ANTHONY LYNN, eldest son of John A. and Mary J. Lynch, died at his home, 1780, in early life he was engaged in business, but he turned to country life at Mississippi, and he was known as "the bird man of the South."

Relative and friends are invited to attend the funeral services, on Thursday morning, at 10 o'clock, at the Church of St. Francis Xavier, West 16th st.

LYNCH.—On Tuesday, April 25, at his residence, 107 West 12th st., MARK ANTHONY LYNN, eldest son of John A. and Mary J. Lynch, died at his home, 1780, in early life he was engaged in business, but he turned to country life at Mississippi, and he was known as "the bird man of the South."

Relative and friends are invited to attend the funeral services, on Thursday morning, at 10 o'clock, at the Church of St. Francis Xavier, West 16th st.

LYNCH.—On Tuesday, April 25, at his residence, 107 West 12th st., MARK ANTHONY LYNN, eldest son of John A. and Mary J. Lynch, died at his home, 1780, in early life he was engaged in business, but he turned to country life at Mississippi, and he was known as "the bird man of the South."

Relative and friends are invited to attend the funeral services, on Thursday morning, at 10 o'clock, at the Church of St. Francis Xavier, West 16th st.

LYNCH.—On Tuesday, April 25, at his residence, 107 West 12th st., MARK ANTHONY LYNN, eldest son of John A. and Mary J. Lynch, died at his home, 1780, in early life he was engaged in business, but he turned to country life at Mississippi, and he was known as "the bird man of the South."

Brooklyn. BUTLER.—On Tuesday, April 25, 1893, JOHN JOSEPH BUTLER, son of P. H. Butler, aged 21 years.

Relative and friends are invited to attend the funeral from the residence of his parents, 395 Huguenot st., on Thursday morning, April 27, 1893, at 9 A. M., thence to St. Agnes' Church, corner Sackett and Hoyt sts., where a solemn requiem mass will be offered for the repose of his soul. Interment in Flatbush.

FITZGERALD.—On Tuesday, April 25, THOMAS F. FITZGERALD, beloved son of Philip and Joanna Fitzgeral, nephew of Rev. J. Fitzgeral, died at his home, 1780, in early life he was engaged in business, but he turned to country life at Mississippi, and he was known as "the bird man of the South."

Relative and friends are respectfully invited to attend the funeral services from his late residence, 348 West 12th st., on Wednesday evening, April 26, at 8 o'clock. Interment in Greenwood Cemetery.

HANFIST.—On Monday at 11 o'clock, SARAH ANN, beloved wife of Joseph Hanfist, died at her residence, 210 East 15th st. Interment at the convenience of the family.

HILLMAN.—On Tuesday, April 25, 1893, WILLIAM J. HILLMAN, in his 80th year, died at his home, 1780, in early life he was engaged in business, but he turned to country life at Mississippi, and he was known as "the bird man of the South."

Relative and friends are invited to attend the funeral from the residence of his son-in-law, James J. Esterbrook, 3 Webster ave., Jersey City, N. J., on Thursday, April 27, 1893, at 12.30 P. M. Interment State Island.

&lt;